“WE SERVE OUR COMMUNITY“

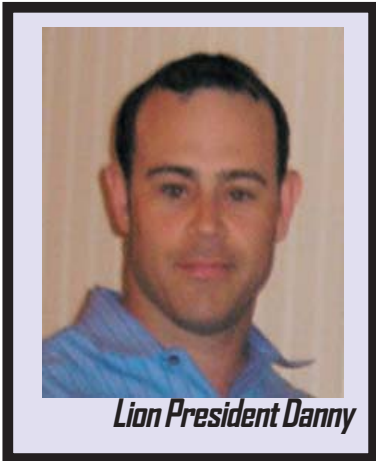

Volume 59

Issue 5

December 2009 - January 2010

HAVE AN OUTSTANDING HOLIDAY

Lion President Danny

Happy Holidays fellow Lions Members, families, and friends. November was the month that we were given an opportunity to reflect on the things that we have to be thankful! Our club has a lot to be thankful for, and as a member I am thankful for the opportunity to serve a great community such as Elk Grove. I am also very thankful, once again, for all of your support!

November was a fantastic month for our club. We have had plenty of activities both for the community and for the members of our club. As always, Lion Jim Parino started the month with another large crowd at the Senior Breakfast. For those of you who have not had the opportunity to attend or serve, I urge you to get involved and tell your friends about this breakfast. A delicious breakfast is provided at a low cost the first Saturday of every month to senior citizens of Elk Grove. It provides the seniors of our community the opportunity to enjoy a great breakfast and socialize with other seniors in the community.

On November 7th, Lion Dave King hosted a club event at the Stockton Thunder hockey game. We had approximately 55 Lions members and family attend the event. This is the second annual trip that Lion Dave has coordinated for our club. For this event, the Stockton Thunder supported cancer awareness and a percentage of the ticket sales went towards the cause of fighting cancer.

On November 11th, the Elk Grove Lions Club supported the Veterans Day Parade by providing over 1,000 hot dogs and buns for the event. Again Lion Jim Parino coordinated the efforts for this project. Although it didn't require any "Lion Power" it was a great example of how Lions support our community.

Lion Jack Megna hosted our annual club Thanksgiving dinner on November 16th. The food was terrific and I believe everyone went home full that evening. The dinner gave us a great opportunity to visit with the families of the Lions members and reflect on all of the things that we have to be thankful for. I want to thank everyone once again for attending the dinner.

Lion Fred Handley stepped in at the last moment to worked together with the Pride of Laguna Rotary Club in the 1st Annual Pancake breakfast at the Dickens Fair in Old Town Elk Grove on November 27th. This was an event that demonstrated how different service clubs with similar goals, can come together to benefit our community. We provided equipment and the Rotary Club the man power to support a fund-raising breakfast in which the proceeds went towards the Old Town Foundation.

Due to the renovations to the Elk Grove Senior Center, the Board has made the decision to postpone any meetings in the month of December until January's regularly scheduled meetings. It is because of these changes that I want to take the opportunity to talk about the events we have coming up in the next two months.

On December 3rd we have the Elk Grove Lions Club Christmas dinner which will be held at the Senior Center. Lions Club members and their families are invited to take part in this dinner. Santa will be in attendance as well to greet the children and hand out gifts. Parents are asked to bring a gift for Santa to handout to there children. Please plan to bring your singing voices so that we can kick off the Christmas Caroling together.

The next event is our annual December Crab Feed on December 5th. This is one of our clubs major fund-raising events, and it is crucial that we have a sell out crowd so make sure that all your friends and families are aware of the event.

Then on Monday January 4th we return to the renovated Senior Center and our regular schedule.

On January 23rd, the Elk Grove Lions Club will partner up with our Galt Lions Club to host their annual Crab Feed. These events are sure to be a great way to celebrate with friends and have a fantastic dinner. I believe that I speak for the entire membership of both clubs when I say that we hope to see you all there.

February 7th will see Super Bowl Sunday. (see advertisement).

If we don't get a chance to see each other, have a Merry Christmas and a safe New Years Eve.

Address to Lion's Club International Convention (Cedar Point, Ohio, 1925)

Below is a transcription of Helen Keller's speech at the Lions Club International Convention at Cedar Point, OH, in 1925. This address led to the Lion's Club adopting vision loss as its primary focus for community service.

Dear Lions,

I suppose you have heard the poetic legend which represents Opportunity as a capricious lady who knocks at every door but once, and if the door isn't opened quickly, she passes on never to return. And that is as it should be. Lovely, desirable ladies won't wait, you have to go out and grab 'em. I am your Opportunity, clothed in visibility. I am knocking at your door. I want to be adopted. The legend doesn't say what you are to do when several beautiful Opportunities present themselves at the same door. I guess you are to choose the one you love the best. I hope you will choose me. I am the youngest, and the opportunity I offer you is full of splendid possibilities of service.

The American Foundation for the Blind is only four years old. It grew out of the imperative needs of the blind and was called into being by the sightless themselves. It is national and international in scope and importance. It represents the best and most enlightened thought on our problems that has been reached so far. It embodies a new idea in our work, unity of effort, which is scientific and modern. It will render impartial assistance to all classes of the blind. It will make the efforts of local organizations more effective, more fruitful in results.

The time has come to regard the work for the sightless as a whole, in which the kindergarten, the school, the library, the workshop, the home for the aged blind and prevention are seen to be parts of a great movement with one end in view, namely making life more worth living for the blind everywhere. Beside the young blind, for whom existing institutions are supposed to provide, there is a large class of men and women who lose their sight when it is too late for them to go to school. Those who are in the dark from childhood are hard pressed to find their place in the work of the world; but the man suddenly stricken blind is another Samson, bound, helpless, dependent, until a way is found to unchain him.

Try to imagine how you would feel if you lost your sight tomorrow. Picture yourself stumbling and groping at noonday as in the night, your work, your independence gone! In that dark hour wouldn't your heart cry out for a friend to teach you how to live in the dark?

That is just the kind of friend the American Foundation for the Blind will be to all the blind if people with sight will only give it the support it must have. Adequately financed, it will help the blind in every emergency of their lives.

You have heard how I was taught—how a little word from the fingers of another, a ray of light from another soul touched the darkness of my mind, and I found myself, found the world, and found God! It is because my teacher cared about me and broke through the dark, silent imprisonment which held me that I am able to work for myself and for others. If you care, if we can make the people of this great country care, the blind will triumph over blindness.

“This is the opportunity I offer you, Lions—to foster and sponsor the work of the American Foundation for the Blind. Will you not help me hasten the day when there shall be no preventable blindness, no little deaf blind child untaught, no blind man or woman unaided? I appeal to you, Lions—you who have your sight, your hearing, you who are strong and brave and kind—will you not constitute yourselves Knights of the Blind in my crusade against darkness?”

Rose Parade Float Get a Boost for 2010

The Lions Float will be #8 in the parade, the second float to come by! This is HUGE because it means that our coverage on network TV will be the best ever. It also means that our spot in the souvenir program will be right in the beginning (while people are still reading it before the parade starts). The elements of selection for the lineup are so esoteric these days but Lion organizers think a lot may have to do with this year's design. It will have moving parts (the wheels) and piped in music from the blind band from Ohio which follow us as the next entry (sponsored and paid for by the Ohio Lions). Advance warning: if you won't be in Los Angeles to watch the parade in person, and live outside the LA media outlets, and have the appropriate access, watch the parade on HGTV. They have gotten the best views & commentary on the Lions float. Oh! And since we're so early in the parade, if you don't get reruns, turn on the TV to the parade by 8 a.m., starting earlier this year.

Five Minutes with an Elk Grove Lion

By the Stag Reporter

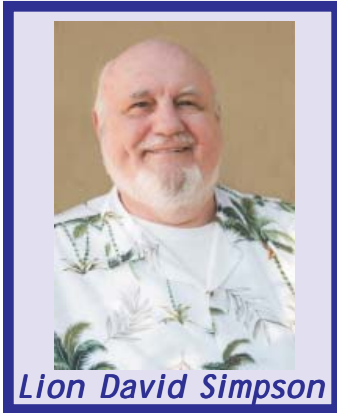

The Stag Reporter has been on the road a lot lately but still found some time to put a call in to a long time member of Lions and our consistently reliable bulletin editor, Lion David Simpson. Lion David was Elk Grove Citizen of the Year in 1995. The David Simpson Park was dedicated in East Elk Grove in 2005.

SR: Hello Lion David. I hope the new bulletin is coming

SR: How else are you spending your time Lion David?

DS: I am Quartermaster for our VFW Post. I just retired after six years on the Board at the Elk Grove Food Bank, and Ginger and I deliver lunches to home-bound seniors through "Meals on Wheels". I also continue to write a weekly column for the past twenty years without fail for the Elk Grove Citizen.

SR: "Once Around The Barber Pole". I look forward to it each week David. Thank you for your time and I can now submit my article for another month.

Lion David Simpson

DS: Well, I need the article from our Lion President and could use another of your member interviews.

SR: Since I'm sitting here in a Dallas hotel, why don't I interview you right now? Why did you get involved with Lions?

DS: It goes back to 1986. I was meeting with my insurance agent at his office and his boss was Kay K. Fukushima. Kay asked me if I ever thought about joining the Lions. I joined his club, the Senator Lions. We used to meet at the old Vince's Restaurant in Rancho Cordova until that burned down. We then moved to a Japanese Restaurant.

SR: Did you enjoy being a part of the Senator Lions Club?

DS: Oh, yes. I was active and of course got around better back then. Ginger and I attended the International Conference in Honolulu. That was the year that Kay was nominated for International 2nd Vice President. It started getting tougher to get around so I transferred to Elk Grove.

SR: Why did you pick the Elk Grove Lions?

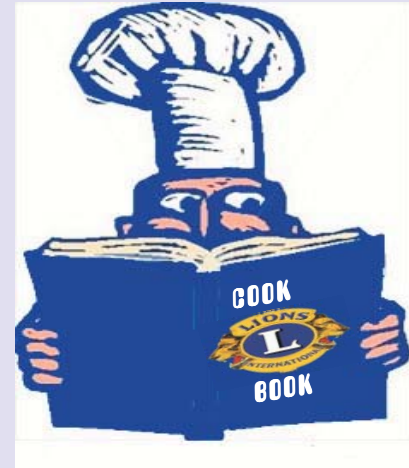

DS: I was charter President for the Elk Grove Jaycees in 1975. The Jaycees are affiliated with the Lions. Jaycees can transfer their time to Lions and vice versa. Jaycees started as the "Junior Chamber of Commerce" but over the years the group got away from that affiliation. You may find a number of older Lions who were once Jaycees. Anyway, I knew a number of Elk Grove Lions from community involvement and my neighbor, Jim Parino, brought me into the club.

SR: So what do you like about the Elk Grove Lions Club?

DS: I like the community involvement, helping out those in need. I also like that we get a group together of generally the same age to work on events and projects together.

SR: How do you think the club can improve?

DS: We try to do too much. As a Lions Club we need to go back and look at why Lions was started. Helen Keller challenged the Lions to be Knights for the Blind in 1925. We should focus on supporting the hearing and sight impaired primarily and then see what time and resources are left over for other needs. There are a lot of other community groups out there that can help too.

Melvin Jones – Founder of Lions Clubs International

Melvin Jones was born on January 13, 1879 in Fort Thomas, Arizona, the son of a United States Army captain who commanded a troop of scouts. Later, his father was transferred and the family moved east. As a young man, Melvin Jones made his home in Chicago, Illinois, became associated with an insurance firm and in 1913 formed his own agency.

He soon joined the Business Circle, a businessmen's luncheon group, and was shortly elected secretary. This group was one of many at that time devoted solely to promoting the financial interests of their membership. Because of their limited appeal, they were destined to disappear. Melvin Jones, however, had other plans.

"What if these men," he asked, "who are successful because of their drive, intelligence and ambition, were to put their talents to work improving their communities?" Thus, at his invitation, delegates from men's clubs met in Chicago to lay the groundwork for such an organization and on June 7, 1917, Lions Clubs International was born.

Melvin Jones eventually abandoned his insurance agency to devote himself full time to Lions at International Headquarters in Chicago. It was under his dynamic leadership that Lions clubs earned the prestige necessary to attract civic-minded members.

The association's founder was also recognized as a leader by those outside the association. One of his greatest honors was in 1945 when he represented Lions Clubs International as a consultant in San Francisco, California, at the organization of the United Nations.

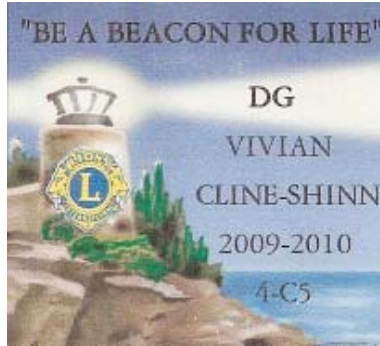

Melvin Jones, the man whose personal code – "You can't get very far until you start doing something for somebody else" – became a guiding principle for public-spirited people the world over, died June 1, 1961 at 82 years of age.
